

Journal

Office of Legislative Counsel

Thursday - 13 March 1952

- - - - -

STATINTL

1. [ ] PSB, called to request my views on the setting up of an informal Committee to discuss revisions of the Kersten amendment. I told him that it was my opinion that the technical people should first reach agreement as to what they desired to include in an amendment and that when such agreement had been reached the lawyers could then step in to give the appropriate phrasing.